Keynote Speakers:

MIKE MULLANE

NASA Space Shuttle Astronaut

Colonel Mike Mullane volunteered for the NASA Space Shuttle Program in the late 1970s, was accepted and flew three orbital missions before retiring. His accounts of those missions are gripping - a difficult takeoff, the shift into zero gravity and his first view of the Earth from space. Mullane mixes his first-hand accounts of the inspirational and humorous aspects of the astronaut experience, with stunning NASA visuals - and serious messages of teamwork, leadership and performance.

RON ELLIS

Former Toronto Maple Leaf and Mental Health Advocate

Celebrated hockey legend Ron Ellis combined skill and sporting play throughout his 15-year NHL career. Playing his entire professional career for the Toronto Maple Leafs, Ellis has become one of the most respected individuals to ever wear the "blue and white". After his retirement from professional hockey, Ellis began fighting his battle with mental illness and has dedicated himself to eliminating the stigma of depression in the workplace.
