ABORIGINAL

Tuesday, February 6, 2007

9:00 am - 12:00 pm

Hot Topics & Developments in Aboriginal Law

Chair: John Rowinski, Torkin Manes Cohen Arbus LLP
Annie M. Thuan, Willms & Shier Environmental Lawyers LLP

There has been no shortage of exploding issues and flashpoint developments in Aboriginal law over the past 12 months. Ongoing on-Reserve drinking water problems, expanding natural resource development on and around Aboriginal lands, and headline-grabbing land blockades are just some of the most prominent subjects to come to the fore. With so many dynamic topics festering, First Nation access and trust in the judicial system, and the burning question of "Who speaks for Aboriginal people?" have taken on a new level of importance. Our panel of respected practitioners and Aboriginal leaders will lead an interactive discussion on the events of 2006.

BUSINESS

Tuesday, February 6, 2007

9:00 am - 12:00 pm

The Ultimate Review of Key Issues in Business Law

Chair: Christopher Garrah, Lang Michener LLP

Business lawyers address a great number of issues on a daily basis. Beyond core issues such as representations and warranties in commercial agreements, there are a myriad of issues that impact your clients. The purpose of this program is to update and refresh business lawyers on certain key business law issues that have very real financial implications for clients. The update on proposed and new legislation will put you ahead of new developments such as the Uniform Securities Transfer Act, and the refresher on rollovers under Section 85 of the Income Tax Act will examine the transactions which are eligible for a rollover, price adjustment clauses in rollover agreements and more. You will be guided through the process of importing foreign goods, the tax implications, and dealing with Canadian Customs. Next you will join an exploration of various ADR processes, how to choose the suitable one, and how to draft the appropriate clauses in Purchase and Sale Agreements. Finally, the program will focus on the transfer of employees in an asset purchase transaction, the obligations of the successor employer, and other employment related considerations from each party's perspective.

CIVIL LITIGATION

Monday, February 5, 2007

9:00 am - 4:30 pm

Victory without Trial – Winning with Pre-Trial Remedies

Chairs: R. Lee Akazaki, Gilbertson Davis Emerson LLP
Jeffrey Percival, Hodgson, Shields, DesBrisay, O'Donnell LLP

In an age of uncertain outcomes and escalating costs, the solution for clients is often clear: resolution before trial. Come learn how to ensure you are part of the solution, not part of the problem in cost containment. Our panel of leading experts offers constructive tips and insight into mastering the art of pre-trial remedies. You will discover the latest word on summary judgment, Mareva and Anton Pillar Injunctions, security for costs and much, much more...

CONSTRUCTION

Tuesday, February 6, 2007

9:00 am - 12:00 pm

Construction Law: Building the Foundation

Chair: James W. MacLellan, Borden Ladner Gervais LLP

The boom in residential, industrial and commercial construction has presented lawyers practising in the area of construction law with exciting opportunities and interesting challenges. Construction law practitioners must have a solid foundation in all areas of construction law to properly advise their clients and avoid the many pitfalls which are unique to this practice area. This seminar will provide an understanding of the Construction Lien Act, including the provisions related to trust obligations, directors' and officers' liability, mortgage priorities and limitations periods. In addition, the speakers will review the new Limitation Act and the dramatic effect it had on construction contracts and construction claims. Valuable practical tips will be offered on the conduct of an action involving construction claims. Finally, this session will outline the typical advice construction law practitioners are often called upon to give related to residential construction. Registrants will come away with a solid foundation of knowledge in the area of construction law and invaluable precedents and checklists from experienced construction law practitioners.

CORPORATE COUNSEL

Monday, February 5, 2007

9:00 am - 12:00 pm

The 10 Step Guide to Document Retention for In-House Counsel

Chairs: Ellen Pekilis, Director, Corporate Legal Affairs, CSA Group
Yasmin Visram, Counsel, Industrial Alliance Insurance and Financial Services Inc.

In today's business environment the risk of regulatory, civil and criminal liability is a major concern for all organizations, from publicly-traded companies to privately-held trusts. Written document retention policies are now a standard part of every organization's legal and risk management plan. How does your organization's document retention policy (DRP) measure up? What are the essential components of an effective DRP? This program reviews legal and technical issues that are critical to implementing a DRP that works without bringing your organization's day-to-day business to a grinding halt.

CRIMINAL

Saturday, February 3, 2007

9:00 am - 4:00 pm

The Ultimate Guide on Hearsay and Voluntariness

Chairs: Peter C. West, Cooper, Sandler & West
Suhail Akhtar, Assistant Crown Attorney,
Ministry of the Attorney General,
Criminal Law Division: Scarborough

After a decade of case law on the issue of statements both from witnesses and accused, just exactly where does the law now stand on the admission of hearsay statements and those given by an accused to the police? Join us and a selection of widely respected judges and senior counsel from both sides of the criminal bar to not only understand the law in these areas but also to see how it actually plays out in the courtroom. Presentations, panel discussions and a series of demonstrations conducted by senior Crown and defence counsel will show you to how to both adduce and exclude evidence which can determine the outcome of a criminal trial. You will never again look at Hearsay and Voluntariness in the same way.

EDUCATION

Monday, February 5, 2007

1:30 pm - 4:30 pm

Achieving Student Success Together

Chairs: Brenda C. Stokes Verworn, Board Lawyer,
District School Board of Niagara - St. Catharines
Melanie A. Warner, Borden Ladner Gervais LLP

The Education Law Sector has undergone significant changes over the last few years. New legislation has been introduced on teacher performance, student discipline, student safety, privacy, and accountability. New forums like the Provincial Stability Commission have been created to deal with labour related matters affecting our schools. Along with more provincial funding has come greater expectations of accountability for student success. This year's Institute program will provide a series of fast paced and current sessions led by legal and professional experts. Educators need to be aware of and equipped to deal with the legal challenges raised by special needs students, violence and surveillance in our schools, and the supervision of students. Participants will receive helpful and informative resources highlighting new legislation, new developments, and recent arbitration and court decisions to help them deal effectively with the legal challenges that impact on our ultimate goal of achieving student success.

ENVIRONMENTAL

Tuesday, February 6, 2007

1:30 pm - 5:00 pm

Seven Environmental Law Pitfalls Facing Lawyers Every Day!

Chairs: Marc McAree, Willms & Shier Environmental Lawyers LLP
Kristi M. Ross, Birchall Northey LLP - Ottawa

What are today's most treacherous environmental law pitfalls that you and your clients face? What strategies can you employ to limit clients' and lawyers' risks? How do environmental lawyers avoid these environmental law traps? Attend this program to learn useful tools and "tricks of the trade." Speakers will identify problems and examine techniques to stick-handle through seven environmental law challenges facing litigators, and real estate, business, and municipal lawyers.

FAMILY

Monday, February 5, 2007

9:00 am - 4:30 pm

New Directions in Family Practice: Where We Are and Where We Are Going

Chairs: Daniel S. Melamed, Torkin Manes Cohen Arbus LLP
Maxine Kerr, Barrister & Solicitor

This program will highlight pivotal strategic and legal issues in family cases from a fresh perspective and with a focus on standards of practice. Topics will include crucial considerations affecting independent legal advice; the year in review in ADR as it relates to family law; the anatomy of a LawPRO file from the perspective of defence counsel; emerging and potential causes of action which all family lawyers should be familiar with; the complexities that can arise in custody cases involving cross-border, mobility and immigration issues; in-depth examination of how various property issues are best approached and when experts should be engaged; factors that impact upon claims for spousal support and an examination of potential results. The program will commence with a "Year in Review" roundup by Phil Epstein and conclude with a judges' panel who will analyze outcomes, based on current law, of spousal support in initial claims, variations and reviews.

IMMIGRATION

Monday, February 5, 2007

9:00 am - 4:30 pm

The ABC's of Provincial Nominee Programs: What Every Immigration Lawyer Must Know

Chairs: Janet L. Bomza, Janet L. Bomza & Associates
Randolph H. Hahn, Guberman Garson Bush

Never before has there been a full day "How To" program dedicated specifically to the eligibility requirements and processing procedures of each of the Provincial Nominee Programs across Canada. Given the current political climate, the excessive delays in processing, and the possible introduction of the simplified Federal application process, now more than ever it is incumbent on Immigration practitioners to have a solid grasp on preparing and filing permanent resident PNP applications. Key government provincial representatives and experienced immigration lawyers will share valuable, practical insights into the strategies to employ in determining the most appropriate PNP program for your client and the tools necessary to prepare and file a successful PNP application.

INSOLVENCY

Monday, February 5, 2007

1:30 pm - 5:00 pm

Getting Blood from a Stone: Strategies for Recovering Assets in a Bankruptcy

Chairs: E. Patrick Shea, Gowling Lafleur Henderson LLP
Frank Spizzirri, Cassels Brock & Blackwell LLP

Your creditor client may believe that bankruptcy is "the end of the road" for recovery of a debt. That is not necessarily the case. Indeed, in some instances, bankruptcy is just the beginning. This program will focus on strategies for maximizing creditors' recoveries and will guide you through the factors and considerations your creditor client should be mindful of to achieve maximum success. Come and learn from our expert speakers how the bankruptcy process can be used effectively to achieve the optimum results.

LABOUR & EMPLOYMENT

Monday, February 5, 2007

9:00 am - 12:00 pm

Human Rights and Labour Law: New Challenges and New Directions in 2007

Chairs: Erin R. Kuzz, Sherrard Kuzz LLP
Kathleen J. Martin, Arbitrator, Part-Time Member, Human Rights Tribunal of Ontario

This upcoming year brings major changes in human rights law in your labour and employment practice. Bill 107, Human Rights Code Amendment Act 2006, contains significant amendments to the respective roles and mandates of the Human Rights Commission and the Human Rights Tribunal of Ontario. In addition, there continue to be notable developments in the caselaw on remedies for human rights violations and the duty to accommodate, which take the law in new directions. This program will provide you with an in depth review and analysis of the proposed amendments and an essential update on the caselaw on key human rights issues that are critical in your labour and employment practice.

MUNICIPAL – THIS PROGRAM CAN BE TAKEN AS A FULL DAY OR HALF DAY.

Monday, February 5, 2007

9:00 am - 4:30 pm

Chairs: Kelly G. Yerxa, City Solicitor and Corporation Counsel,
City of Burlington
Michael Stewart, Goodmans LLP

The Province is moving forward with a number of initiatives that impact municipalities and the development industry. The City of Toronto Act, 2006, followed on the heels by Bill 130, the Municipal Statute Law Amendment Act, 2006 may give municipalities more autonomy and greater spheres of jurisdiction in which to govern. Make sure you are conversant with these changes and new powers. How do these changes affect rural municipalities as opposed to urban GTA areas? From a planning perspective, under amendments proposed by Bill 51 and its regulations, the Provincial Growth Plan for the Greater Golden Horseshoe and planning and development beyond the Greenbelt Area, is there any local autonomy left or has planning moved back to the Provincial level? Update yourself on these changes along with a review of the top municipal and planning cases in 2006 which you should have read, but probably didn't.

MUNICIPAL PART 1 [Morning Session] Local Autonomy in Planning Matters – Where is the Pendulum Swinging?

MUNICIPAL PART 2 [Afternoon Session] Local Autonomy in Municipal Affairs – Where is the Pendulum Swinging?

PENSIONS

Monday, February 5, 2007

1:30 pm - 4:45 pm

Tensions Sizzle When Pensions Fizzle

Chairs: Mitch Frazer, Torys LLP
Lawrence J. Swartz, Morneau Sobeco

Private and public sector employers have found that pension plan liabilities, their funding, and associated legal developments have become very important. Employees and unions have been giving pension issues greater scrutiny. This program will address disputes and situations where pension fund resources are limited. It will consider legal funding issues for pension plan sponsors, members, and others, as well as areas of dispute and litigation. The program is relevant to specialists in pensions and benefits and to those who, from time to time, need to address legal aspects of pensions.

PRIVACY

Tuesday, February 6, 2007

9:00 am - 12:00 pm

Data Breaches and Identity Theft-- The Quintessential Privacy Dilemma

Chairs: Jennifer Dolman, Osler, Hoskin & Harcourt LLP
Priscilla Platt, Heenan Blaikie LLP

This program will provide an in-depth look at one of the most vexing privacy issues of our day. Expert speakers and those who have experienced privacy disasters will explain how to prepare for them, how to avoid them and their relationship to identity theft. You will come away with an understanding of how to manage Personal Privacy Breaches and the consequences that flow from them. A must for all counsel who give advice to any entity that handles personal information.

PUBLIC SECTOR

Tuesday, February 6, 2007

1:30 pm - 4:30 pm

Acting for Public Bodies —The Essence of the Duties Owed

Chairs: Michael Fleishman, Counsel, Ministry of Attorney
General-Crown Law Office Civil
Priscilla Platt, Heenan Blaikie LLP

This half day session will focus on issues that are unique to lawyers working in the public and broader public sectors or for bodies that are publicly funded. This session is a must for any lawyer who works in these sectors or who addresses public law issues as a private sector counsel. You will hear experts discuss the ethical rules that apply to lawyers acting for public bodies or bodies that are publicly funded, how the 'public interest' is considered in these matters and its impact, and much more.
